Business:

- The shortage of ammunition and reloading components was brought up for discussion by Eddie Wallace. After conversation regarding the industry shortages and difficulty in finding inventory to sell in FCWA Store George Taylor made the following motion.

Based on the Store having shotgun shells available to sale. Shotgun Shell purchases will be limited to 5 Boxes of Shells for a 100 rounds of Sporting Clays.

1 Box of Shotgun Shells may be purchased for individual rounds of skeet, trap, or five stand.

Due to the shortage of supply stand alone purchases of shotgun shells without club activities described above are not permitted at this time.

Also included in this motion is that FCWA is to price shotgun shells 30% above cost.

This motion was seconded by Bobby Bell and a vote taken. The motion carried.

- Floyd Farless mentioned the need for Fish Attractors for the lake. After discussion Eddie Wallace recommended volunteers be requested and this organized by the volunteers.

- Josh recommended Charity Shooting Events be required to make an up front deposit when they request to reserve a date for the event with FCWA.

After discussion George Taylor made a motion that a $500 deposit be made per course at the time the date for the shoot is reserved. The deposit is non-refundable unless the event is cancelled with a minimum of 30 days notice. FCWA is to receive $40 per shooter, with payment for a minimum of 13 participants per course reserved. Russell Rogers made a second to the motion. A vote was taken and the motion carried.

- Terry Weeks reported the first Archery event had 38 shooters with $400 in income generated to the FCWA. Also the event resulted in 2 new members joining.
- Johnny Nutter stated the planned Pheasant Shoots will have to be cancelled. As a result of the Pandemic the growers did not raise birds for sale this year. This is anticipated to be a one year interruption, with plans to hold the events next year.

There being no additional business a motion to adjourn was made by Terry Weeks The motion was seconded by Jeff Coley and the motion carried.
